Dazaifu souvenirs

Dazaifu specialty Umegae-mochi

Umegae-mochi is a toasted rice cake with sweet red bean paste inside. It is stamped with the plum blossom pattern that is the symbol of Dazaifu Tenmangu Shrine.

The origin of Umegae-mochi Sugawara Michizane was exiled from Kyoto and spending a miserable life in Dazaifu. Out of pity for his circumstance an old lady who lived nearby gave him a rice cake decorated with a plum tree twig to cheer him up.

Dazaifu folk craft Kiuso

Kiuso is a wooden hand-carved craft. It represents that a bullfinch perches on a tree and spread its wings. People believe that bullfinch is a messenger of a god and bring good luck.

Usoakae festival is held at Dazaifu Tenmangu Shrine on January 7th every year. People exchange wooden bullfinches. It symbolizes exchanging your untruths for the blessings of the deity.

Strap and earpick

Dazaifu Kenjo salt (Sea salt)

Sea salt is used for purification and driving away evil. Dazaifu Tenmangu Shrine uses Dazaifu Kenjo salt for all events and ceremonies.
